Set just a stones throw from Brentwood railway station, local shops and services, Meacock and Jones are delighted to offer for sale this attractive mid terrace stock brick period property set behind a white picket fence, with many original features throughout.

The accommodation is entered via a modern composite front door leading into a porch, a convenient area to drop off your coats and shoes, before heading into the lounge. This is a nicely presented room with central gas stone feature fireplace, sash style window to front, and plenty of space to arrange your sofas and chairs. A panelled door leads through into the sitting/dining room, also with feature fireplace with cast stone insert and wood mantel, and a sash style window offering views over the garden. Stairs rise up from here to the first floor with convenient storage cupboard underneath. A door leads into the kitchen which is fully fitted with wooden storage units at base and eye level, contrasting laminate work tops, tiled floor, integrated oven, hob and freezer, plus space for other appliances, with a door and window overlooking and leading to the garden. Set beyond the kitchen is a very nicely presented modern tiled shower room with walk in shower cubicle, sink, two towel rails, and door to the separate wc.

Heading upstairs, bedroom one is set at the front of the house with a sash style window, whilst bedroom two is at the rear overlooking the garden with a sash style window, plus a storage cupboard housing the Vaillant boiler.

Externally the garden commences with a good sized patio area leading to the remainder which measures approximately 75' and is mostly laid to lawn with mature tree and additional hard standing area at the end of the garden to enjoy the evening sun. There is permit parking available in the road outside at the front.

Brentwoods busy high street, with its excellent options for shopping and socialising is less than half a mile away, and the area benefits from many excellent schools.
