 Guide Price £350,000 - £375,000  This three bedroom mid terrace property is offered for sale with no onward chain, double glazing throughout, and is set in a popular location with easy access to both Brentwood and Shenfield, and local shops and services nearby.

The accommodation commences with a porch area giving access to the front door, which leads into the dual aspect ground floor area which has been completely opened up with a feature brick fireplace as a centrepiece, wooden beams, bay window to front and sliding patio doors to the rear. The kitchen/dining area has slate flooring, breakfast bar area and oak effect units at low and eye level, with an integrated oven and hob, Siemens dishwasher and Siemens washer/dryer. Stairs rise up to the first floor where there is loft space access, which subject to planning, could be converted as some of the local neighbours have done. There are three bedrooms, bedroom one having floor to ceiling height wardrobes to one wall with additional storage space and vanity unit. Bedroom two is set at the back, also with wardrobes and storage space, built in airing cupboard, and nice views over the garden. There is a family bathroom completing the accommodation on this floor. Externally there is side gate access from the front, where there is a lawned area and lovely countryside views, to the rear garden. This front area has the potential to create off street parking for a couple of cars as many other locals have done. The rear garden commences with a crazy paved patio and leads to the remainder, which is mostly laid to lawn with some lovely mature shrubs and trees offering much privacy and an additional paved area at the foot. There are excellent bus route options nearby plus convenient road access to the A127 and A12 with their onward links. The area benefits from many good options for schooling, from nursery level through to senior school, plus plenty of woodland and park areas to enjoy outdoor activities.
