Meacock and Jones are delighted to offer for sale this beautiful grade two listed cottage dating back to the 18th century and situated within a very private sought after turning. The property has many characterful features throughout, such as original beams and fireplaces, sash windows, and sits on a beautifully maintained plot that measures approximately 0.2 of an acre.

The accommodation commences with a fantastic split room creating a couple of areas for relaxation and entertaining, with an attractive wooden floor that flows through the ground floor rooms and an open fireplace with exposed brickwork creating the divide. The kitchen is nicely appointed with white in-frame wooden units and contrasting granite work surfaces, some integrated appliances, and views over the rear garden. Behind the kitchen there is a conservatory with built in cabinetry and seating area, with windows and french doors overlooking and leading to the lovely gardens. There is an additional living room, providing another comfortable space to relax, and french doors lead into the conservatory. At the back of the property is a four piece family bathroom with Velux window allowing natural light flow. There is also a utility area with space for appliances. Stairs rise up to the first floor where there are four good sized double bedrooms, the main bedroom being dual aspect, with high ceilings, beams and enjoying views over the garden. There is a modern fitted shower room completing the internal accommodation.

Externally the property is tucked away from the road and has parking for numerous vehicles, plus a large lawned area to the front. To the rear the private gardens have been beautifully kept, mainly laid to lawn with mature shrubs, and a paved area with built in barbecue. The garage has been converted into an outside office. This is a unique opportunity to acquire a beautiful home in an idyllic spot.
