An Exceptional Opportunity in One of Brentwood's Most Sought-After Residential Locations

Occupying a prominent corner position at the junction of Hartswood Road and Eleanor Way, this attractive three-bedroom detached family home offers approximately 1,273 sq. ft. of accommodation, generous gardens, a detached garage and considerable scope for further enlargement. Plans have been approved by the Brentwood Borough Council (25/01148/HHA) to extend the house on both the ground and first floor levels, to provide four bedrooms, a large open plan kitchen/dining/living area, utility room, ground floor study and a luxurious primary bedroom suite to incorporate a dressing room and en-suite shower room.

Situated in one of Brentwood's most desirable residential locations, directly opposite the beautiful woodland surroundings of Hartswood and within easy reach of King George's Playing Fields, the property presents an increasingly rare opportunity to acquire a detached family home with exceptional potential.

The generous corner plot is undoubtedly one of the property's most appealing features. With extensive frontage to Hartswood Road and additional space extending alongside Eleanor Way, there is considerable scope to enlarge and reconfigure the existing accommodation. The plot's prominent position also offers the possibility of creating further off-street parking, subject to any necessary consents.

Already extended to the rear, the house provides surprisingly spacious and versatile
