The Property

A charming four-bedroom house located in the centre of one of the Cotswolds' most desirable villages, offering an exciting opportunity for modernisation and the chance to create a wonderful family home.

The ground floor features a spacious sitting room, a kitchen with an adjacent dining room ideal for entertaining, a convenient downstairs cloakroom, and direct internal access to the garage.

Upstairs, the property offers a generous principal bedroom, two further double bedrooms, a single bedroom, and a family bathroom.

With excellent potential to update and personalise, this home presents a rare opportunity in a sought-after village setting, all within a short drive of Kingham Station, providing convenient transport links to Oxford and London.

The Situation

Bledington is a picturesque Cotswold village in Gloucestershire, known for its wide, stream-crossed green, historic St. Leonard's Church, and the popular Kings Head Inn. Located on the border of Gloucestershire and Oxfordshire, southeast of Stow-on-the-Wold in the Evenlode Valley and dates back to Saxon times (AD 798), was mentioned in the Domesday Book (1086), and was once owned by Winchcombe Abbey.
