The Property

This well presented two-bedroom, two-bathroom, first floor apartment forms part of Kingham House, a modern purpose built block of four apartments faced in traditional Cotswold stone in walking distance of Charlbury's town centre and railway station.

On arrival, you walk directly into a centrally positioned entrance hall with an airing cupboard and a separate storage cupboard. All accommodation leads off the hallway, creating a practical and straightforward layout.

The kitchen offers a good range of storage cupboards and includes an electric hob and oven, integrated under-counter fridge and freezer, an integrated dishwasher and freestanding washing machine.

The sitting room / dining room is a bright and comfortable space with plenty of natural light. There is ample room for both living and dining furniture, an electric wall-mounted fire and double doors opening onto a Juliet balcony.

The principal bedroom is a generous double room with an ensuite shower room. The second bedroom can also accommodate a double bed and benefits from a built-in wardrobe. A main bathroom serves the apartment, fitted with a bath and shower over. There is also very useful storage within the attic space which is illuminated and full height accessed from a pull down ladder.

Outside, there is covered off-street parking for one car.

The apartment is leasehold with a share of the freehold and forms part of a well-maintained and managed building. Charlbury's shops, cafés and amenities are close at hand, along with the railway station offering direct services to Oxford and London Paddington.
