Westfield Lane, St. Osyth Priory

Discover modern luxury and timeless charm at Westfield Lane, St Osyth—a stunning home set within the prestigious St Osyth Priory development. This exceptional property blends traditional architecture with a premium contemporary specification, perfect for sophisticated family living, downsizers looking for a beautiful home with minimal maintenance and improved energy efficiency.

St Osyth Priory is steeped in over 1,400 years of myth, legend, and heritage, with Grade I and II listed buildings and royal connections from Queen Elizabeth I's visits. Owning a home here means joining a story stretching back to medieval England, with every resident helping preserve and shape its iconic legacy.

The ground floor includes an open-plan kitchen, living and dining area with Thames oak laminate flooring. The kitchen has pale grey matt units, Silestone worktops, and integrated Bosch and Zanussi appliances, including an induction hob, oven, dishwasher, fridge freezer and washer dryer. There is a stainless steel undermount sink and practical storage throughout.

Upstairs, the main bedroom includes fitted wardrobes or a dressing area. Bathrooms feature Laufen sanitaryware, Vado brassware, porcelain wall tiles and heated towel rails. Underfloor heating is fitted downstairs, and radiators serve the upstairs rooms, with smart thermostat controls.

The property includes timber windows, brushed chrome fittings, and an intruder alarm. The garden is turfed with a Raj Indian sandstone patio, and the development is accessed through secure, movement-activated gates. The property benefits from 2 parking spaces.

High-speed broadband is available, and some layouts include a study or work area. This is a well-designed home in a historic setting, ready for modern living.
