Offers Over
St. Peters Road, West Mersea

This charming three-bedroom detached bungalow on St. Peters Road offers spacious and versatile living accommodation, perfect for those looking for a comfortable home with potential to further enhance.

The property features three generously sized double bedrooms, ideal for families or those in need of extra space. A semi open-plan kitchen and dining area creates a welcoming space for entertaining, while a rear extension has added a larger lounge and a level-access shower room for convenience.

The west-facing garden provides a private and sunny outdoor retreat, with plenty of scope for landscaping or future development. With off-road parking for multiple vehicles and the potential to extend further, subject to planning permission, this property presents an excellent opportunity for buyers looking to put their own stamp on a home in a sought-after location.
