This bright and characterful attic flat is at the top of a secure and well-maintained airy Georgian staircase. It is surprisingly peaceful and has panoramic views to east and west giving morning light in the kitchen and sunsets in the lounge. The property combines charm with practicality in a highly convenient central Perth setting.

The welcoming living room is well proportioned with a large bay dormer window. The kitchen has vintage 1960s units, ample work surface and dining space. (White goods are included in the price/other furnishings in the flat are open to negotiation). There are two well proportioned bedrooms both offering good flexibility for a variety of uses including home work if required. The bathroom is neatly presented. A separate utility room adds to the ample amount of storage and houses washing machine and gas CH boiler. A basement also holds a lockable cellar, and the garden at the rear of the property is communal. Reassuringly this building has been subject to recent major renovation repairs (roof replacement, stone replacement and chimney repairs) the work was done with support and advice from Perth & Kinross Council and Perth & Kinross Heritage Trust and including a 25 year guarantee. Early viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate the space, view and central location on offer.
