Well presented throughout, this attractive two-bedroom first floor flat offers bright, comfortable accommodation with a stylish modern finish and a practical layout

The generous living room provides an inviting main reception space, with a wide window bringing in plenty of natural light and offering an attractive leafy outlook. Separate from the living room, the kitchen has a sleek contemporary feel, finished with glossy dark cabinetry, contrasting worktops and a useful breakfast bar providing space for casual dining. Both bedrooms are well proportioned, giving the property flexibility for couples, small families or those requiring a dedicated home-working space. The accommodation is completed by a modern shower room featuring a generous shower enclosure, contemporary fitted storage and modern finishes. A particularly spacious hallway connects each room and adds to the sense of space throughout the property. Finished in light, neutral tones and presented in very good condition, this is an appealing home offering a strong combination of generous room sizes, modern interiors and practical everyday living.
