Detached Family Home | Three Bedrooms | Extended | Breakfast Kitchen | Living Room & Dining Room | Popular Location | Close to Local Amenities | Beautifully Presented Throughout | Viewings are Advised |

Nestled within the serene environs of Waterhouse Lane, Gedling, this captivating three-bedroom detached house epitomizes the ideal family dwelling. Traditional aesthetics converge with modern living, as the property's bay-fronted façade gives way to an elegantly extended interior, promising ample space across its generous plot.

The heart of this home resides in its delightful living areas, including a cosy living room, a separate dining room for family meals and a charming breakfast kitchen equipped with underfloor heating for those cooler mornings. The conservatory is a radiant addition, offering a tranquil space to unwind while enjoying views of the garden. The practicality of a ground floor WC further complements family living.

This residence's allure extends beyond its walls to the picturesque surroundings of Gedling. Its enviable position ensures tranquillity without isolation, with a plethora of family-friendly amenities within easy reach – from reputable schools and bustling shops to leisure facilities and efficient transport links.

Outdoor living is catered for with a driveway, an integral garage and a substantial brick garden store – perfect for those seeking a blend of utility and storage. The surrounding gardens are a haven of peace, presenting a private retreat for relaxation or play.

This splendid property, ideal for families seeking a harmonious balance of comfort and convenience, truly comes to life upon internal inspection. To appreciate the full extent of its appeal and envision your life within its walls, viewing is essential. Seize this opportunity to lay roots in a home that offers a sanctuary for family life.
