Never has Flooded | For Sale with NO CHAIN | Immaculate Cottage | Beautifully Presented Throughout | Original Features | Close to the Village Amenities and Transport Links | Viewings Highly Advised |

Located on Station Road in the ever-popular village of Lowdham, this delightful one-bedroom period terrace cottage offers a wonderful opportunity for those seeking charm and character in a highly desirable location. Immaculately presented throughout and offered with no onward chain, this picturesque cottage boasts a wealth of original features, including stone terracotta tiling, exposed beamed ceilings, and a characterful feature fireplace complete with log burner – perfect for cosy evenings in.

The spacious open-plan living and dining area enjoys beautiful sand stone flooring, creating a warm and inviting space ideal for relaxing or entertaining. The quaint kitchen is both practical and charming, with a window seat providing serene views over the nearby stream, the perfect spot for morning coffee.

Upstairs, you will find a generous double bedroom, alongside a modern shower room benefitting from luxurious underfloor heating. The accommodation is complemented by a private and secluded courtyard garden to the front, providing an idyllic retreat for alfresco dining or simply unwinding with a book.

Located just a short stroll from Lowdham's excellent local amenities, this lovely cottage is also well-positioned for transport links, including the railway station, making it ideal for commuters or those wishing to explore the surrounding countryside. This is a rare opportunity to acquire a beautiful period property in a thriving village setting – early viewing is highly recommended.
