ONLY 1 PLOT REMAINING ON THE FIRST PHASE OF THIS BESPOKE DEVELOPMENT - A location such as Glebe Farm deserves to be developed with the greatest of respect, which is exactly what the owners have done here.

Working in partnership with an award-winning team, including experienced developers BMA Homes, who have a range of exclusive developments to their name; together with award-winning architects, Guy Taylor Associates who have been instrumental in creating beautiful and thought-provoking homes. Practice Principal Keith Rodgers, assigned to design these amazing, bespoke dwellings, has personally scrutinised every aspect of the design together with the developers. As such, 14 totally individual residences will proudly take their place within this stunning location. Each home will have, not only its own visual identity, but very much its own personality, waiting to be brought to life by the new owners. At every stage, each property has been designed with their new owners needs in mind. Outstanding care and attention to every detail has been given to the creation of homes that offer flexible, and spacious accommodation. The gardens and outside space on each individual plot, take full advantage of the elevated position, that Glebe Farm enjoys, offering far reaching views that span the Trent Valley and beyond. Burton Joyce is a highly regarded village with a host of 'family friendly' amenities, all of which are close by.

The benefits of residing at Glebe Farm is that all of these amenities are within easy reach; local schools, regular public transport services including rail links, excellent pubs, restaurants and recreational facilities. Burton Joyce is also renowned for having some of the county's most beautiful countryside on your doorstep to explore. The river Trent also gently meanders alongside Burton Joyce and is a wonderful place for a weekend or evening stroll with a picnic. Glebe Farm, Burton Joyce.
