Arnscott, St. Johns – Where Memories Have Lived and New Chapters Begin

Tucked away in a quiet cul-de-sac on the sought-after outskirts of Crowborough, Arnscott is a warm and welcoming semi-detached home that has been cherished by the same family for over 30 years. Brimming with natural light and generous proportions, this is a home built for easy family living, Sunday roasts, muddy boots, and countryside sunsets.

From the moment you arrive, Arnscott feels like a retreat. The driveway provides ample parking and leads to a single garage. Inside, the space unfolds with a balance of practicality and personality -offering room to grow, space to breathe, and views to inspire.

The heart of the home is the sociable kitchen/dining space - well-equipped and full of potential -perfect for hosting or baking with the kids. Over the years, thoughtful extensions have added a utility room and boot room, ideal for busy mornings or after forest walks.

The bright and inviting living room is anchored by a rustic stone fireplace and flows beautifully into the conservatory, now updated with new roof blinds and overlooking fields beyond. It's a tranquil spot to enjoy your morning coffee, curl up with a book, or watch the seasons change.

Upstairs, four double bedrooms provide comfort and versatility for growing families, visiting guests, or even a home office or two. And with open countryside visible from the rear windows, waking up here always feels like a breath of fresh air.

The rear garden is a low-maintenance patio - ideal for summer barbecues or evening drinks - but for the green-fingered, it's a blank canvas ready for planting, growing, or even creating your own cottage garden dream. Beyond the fence, you're met with open fields, giving an uninterrupted sense of peace and privacy.
