LOCATION

Conyer is an idyllic hamlet within the borough of Swale, located on the marshes of the North Kent coast, between the market town of Faversham (5.5 miles distant) and Sittingbourne (5.5 miles distant), approximately 1.8 miles North of the village of Teynham, and at the head of Conyer Creek. The hamlet which dates back to the Roman period was often mentioned in relation to smuggling during the 18th and 19th centuries and then became known for its brick making and later on its barge building industries. The area is known for its picturesque countryside and is situated on the edge of a wildlife sanctuary, designated an international Ramsar site and a Site of Special Scientific Interest. The nearby Swale Marina provides easy access to an excellent and varied cruising area, within easy reach of the Rivers Swale and Medway and is ideally positioned for sailing up the River Thames, East Coast and Channel crossings. The property is within close proximity to shops and amenities in nearby Teynham, highly regarded primary and secondary schools and a short distance from The Ship Inn, a popular 18th Century public house and restaurant. The Saxon Shore Way and National Cycle Route 1 pass through the hamlet, offering superb walks and cycling and in addition, there are a number of local golf courses. Transport links are strong with access to the A2 / M2 and subsequent motorway networks. The high speed Javelin service from Sittingbourne station provides a frequent service to London St Pancras with a journey time of approximately 1 hour as well as services to London Victoria with a journey time of approximately 67 minutes. Services from Teynham station (1.7 miles) to London St Pancras have an an approximate journey time of 85 minutes and the service to London Victoria is approximately 75 minutes.
