100 Mumbles Road, Blackpill, Swansea, SA3 5AS

£395,000

Along the gentle curve of Swansea Bay, where the sweep of coastline meets a well rooted community, Blackpill offers a setting that feels both connected and quietly restorative. The promenade invites early morning walks and evening sunsets, while nearby cafés and local shops lend an easy rhythm to daily life. Clyne Gardens and the wooded valley beyond provide a change of pace, and well regarded schools sit within comfortable reach. With straightforward access into Swansea city and onward links along the Gower Peninsula, the location balances coastal calm with practical convenience.

Set back from the seafront, this terraced home enjoys a direct relationship with the water, its principal rooms looking out towards Mumbles Bay and the distant outline of the lighthouse. The interior unfolds with a sense of clarity and purpose. A porch leads into a generous lounge and dining room, where natural light draws the eye forward. The kitchen sits to the rear, arranged for everyday ease, with a separate shower and utility room providing additional functionality.

Upstairs, three well proportioned bedrooms are arranged around a family bathroom, each offering a comfortable retreat. The upper level reveals an attic room, a flexible space suited to work, hobbies or occasional accommodation, adding a further dimension to the home.

Outside, the rear garden has been designed for low maintenance enjoyment. A patio provides space for seating and outdoor dining, stepping down to an AstroTurf area that remains usable throughout the seasons. The garden is enclosed for privacy, with a gate giving access to the rear lane.

Offered with no onward chain, this is a home that combines coastal outlooks with practical living, well suited to those seeking a settled base by the sea.
