£350,000

Bishopston offers a particularly appealing balance of village life, open countryside and easy access to the coast. The surrounding Gower landscape provides a wealth of opportunities for walking and outdoor pursuits, with Bishopston Valley and the beaches of Caswell Bay and Brandy Cove close by. The village itself has a strong community atmosphere with local shops, everyday amenities and well regarded schools, while Mumbles is within easy reach for its cafés, restaurants, independent shops and seafront. Swansea city centre is also readily accessible, making the area well suited to those seeking a quieter setting without feeling removed from the wider amenities of the city.

Set within a plot of approximately 0.05 acres, this three bedroom semi detached home combines a practical layout with an attractive outlook to the rear. The accommodation is arranged over two floors, with the ground floor providing a welcoming hallway, comfortable lounge, kitchen and shower room, while the first floor offers three bedrooms together with a family bathroom.

Outside, the property is particularly well suited to enjoying the setting. Parking for two vehicles is provided to the front, while the rear garden offers a choice of spaces for outdoor dining and relaxation. A decked seating area provides ample room for tables and chairs, leading onto a lawned garden and further patio seating area, where the countryside outlook creates a peaceful backdrop. A detached garden shed and useful side access complete the outside space.

For those looking to enjoy the best of the Gower lifestyle, this is a home that offers a pleasing combination of countryside views, coastal proximity, village amenities and convenient access to Swansea. Bishopston Primary School and Bishopston Comprehensive School are both close by, adding further appeal for families.
