£775,000

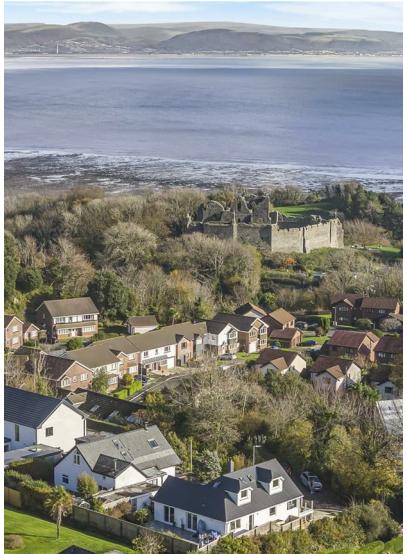

From its elevated position, this elegant home enjoys a truly captivating outlook across Swansea Bay, Mumbles and the ancient silhouette of Oystermouth Castle. The aspect is ever changing with the light and tide, creating a remarkable sense of connection to the sea and the landscape beyond.

Inside, the property has been designed for comfortable family living with generous, flowing spaces and plenty of natural light. The welcoming porch opens into a spacious lounge and dining room, a lovely setting for relaxed gatherings and quiet evenings alike. A separate sitting room offers an additional place to unwind, while the kitchen provides access to the raised deck outside, ideal for open air dining or morning coffee overlooking the bay. The ground floor also includes a modern shower room and two well proportioned bedrooms, offering flexibility for guests, work or hobbies.

Upstairs, both bedrooms enjoy en-suite bathrooms, with the second bedroom also benefitting from a useful store room. These upper rooms take full advantage of the beautiful views, creating restful spaces that feel private and calm.

Outside, the property is approached by a private driveway providing ample parking and a garage. To the front, a gravelled area and garden pond set a tranquil tone, with steps rising to the elevated deck. The rear garden is thoughtfully arranged with further decking for entertaining, a neat lawn, and established planting that provides seasonal colour and texture. A greenhouse and garden shed add practicality for those who enjoy time outdoors.

The setting places you within easy reach of the charm of Mumbles village, its boutiques, cafés and seafront promenade. Oystermouth Castle and nearby coastal paths invite leisurely walks with panoramic views, while the beaches of Langland and Caswell are just a short drive away. Well regarded schools, local parks and convenient transport links to Swansea make this an appealing location for modern family life.
