Millington House, Dale Street, Manchester

£1,050 PCM

Step into a slice of Manchester history with this Grade II listed conversion at Millington House, perfectly positioned in the heart of the Northern Quarter, the city's cultural hub of indie cafés, creative studios and unmistakable charm. With Piccadilly Station just moments away, this apartment delivers that ideal blend of character, convenience and city-centre buzz.

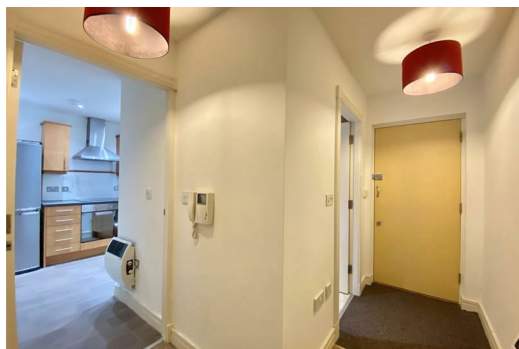

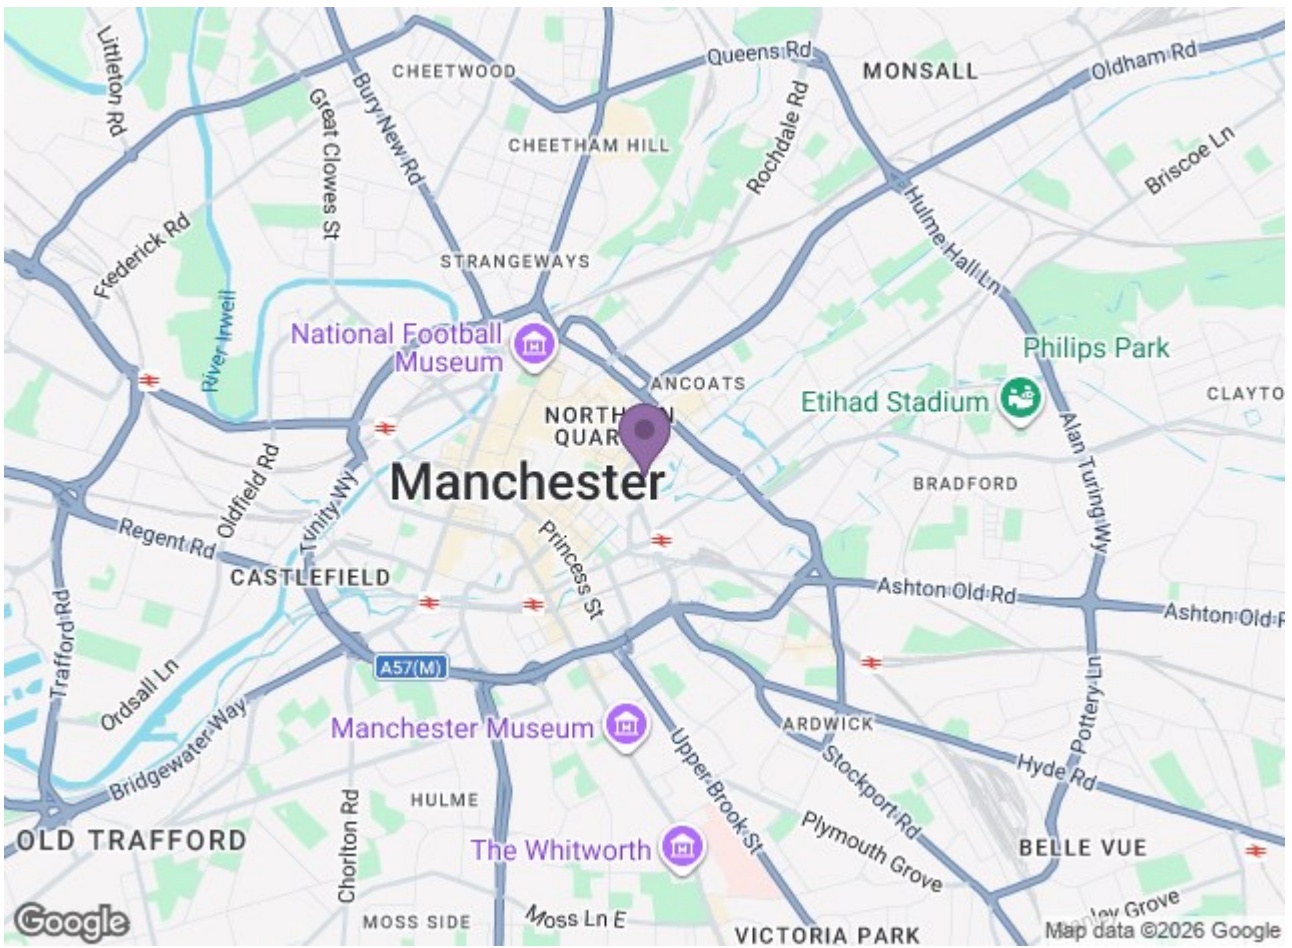

If space and location top your wishlist, this one-bedroom home should be firmly on your radar. Spanning approximately 640 sq. ft., it's impressively generous, with high ceilings and original sash windows that flood the apartment with natural light. The result? A bright, uplifting space that feels instantly welcoming.

The bedroom is a standout, large, comfortable and ready to accommodate even the most enthusiastic shoppers. And then there's the bonus room: a storage space, snug, walk-in wardrobe or mini home office, whatever you need it to be, this extra room rises to the occasion. With a number of recent upgrades throughout, the apartment combines Millington House's historic charm with modern-day comfort.

If you'd like to arrange a viewing or have any questions, we're here to help.
