Referral Fees

At RE/MAX Prime Estates, we are committed to full transparency in all aspects of our service.

As part of our commitment to supporting clients through the property transaction process, we may introduce you to third-party service providers, including conveyancers and mortgage advisers. Where such introductions are made, please note the following:

Conveyancing Referrals:

Should you choose to instruct a solicitor or licensed conveyancer introduced by us, please be aware that

RE/MAX Prime Estates may receive a referral fee for this introduction. This fee is typically up to £200 and is paid directly to us by the conveyancing firm. This fee is not an additional cost to you and does not affect the quote or service you receive. We only recommend firms we believe offer a high standard of service. You are under no obligation to use any of the professionals we recommend and are free to choose an alternative provider.

Financial Services Referrals:

If we introduce you to an independent financial advisory firm, and you proceed with their services, RE/MAX Prime Estates may receive a referral fee averaging £218 per completed case. This referral fee is paid by the financial advisory firm and does not affect the fees or products offered to you. As with all our recommendations, you are under no obligation to proceed with any advisor we introduce.

We are happy to provide further details on referral arrangements upon request.

Money Laundering Regulation

Under the UK's Money Laundering, Terrorist Financing and Transfer of Funds (Information on the Payer) Regulations 2017 (MLR 2017), estate agents are legally required to conduct Customer Due Diligence (CDD) on both sellers and buyers when a business relationship is established. This involves verifying the identity of all beneficial owners and individuals involved in the transaction. HM Revenue & Customs (HMRC) supervises estate agents for compliance with these regulations.

To meet these obligations, RE/MAX Prime Estates employs a third-party provider to perform Anti-Money Laundering (AML) checks. A fee of £50 plus VAT per individual over the age of 18 is charged to cover the cost of these checks.
