This apartment is an impressive and beautifully presented two-bedroom, two-bathroom residence that delivers modern comfort, generous proportions and exceptional convenience, enhanced by the rare luxury of a large, private, landscaped garden—a standout feature seldom found in properties of this type. The expansive open-plan living, dining and kitchen area offers a bright, airy and welcoming environment, finished with contemporary fittings and designed to create a seamless space for relaxation, hosting and everyday life. Both bedrooms are well sized, with the highlight being the master bedroom suite, complete with its own stylish en-suite bathroom, providing a peaceful and private retreat. A second high-quality bathroom adds further practicality for guests or sharers. Set within a secure, well-maintained modern development and positioned moments from excellent transport connections, local amenities, supermarkets and major commuter routes, this apartment offers an exceptional blend of style, space and location—perfect for first-time buyers, professionals, downsizers and investors seeking a standout home close to Manchester city centre.
