SELLER'S COMMENTS

When we first viewed this property, we instantly fell in love with it. At the time, we were actually looking for a bungalow, but the moment we stepped through the door we knew this was the home for us.

We have thoroughly enjoyed living here. The house is bright, spacious, and welcoming, and the garden has been a lovely place to relax. The location has also been fantastic, offering a peaceful setting whilst remaining close to local amenities.

If we're honest, we probably let our hearts rule our heads when we bought it. Although we love the property, we have since realised that a bungalow would have been a more practical choice for our long-term needs, as we are finding the stairs increasingly difficult.

This has been a difficult decision, but we hope the next owners will enjoy this wonderful home as much as we have.
