The image shows a kitchen area with a dark countertop and a stainless steel sink. A chrome faucet is installed in the sink. On the countertop, there are two bottles of dish soap and a sponge. The backsplash is made of white square tiles. Below the countertop, the wall is exposed, showing copper pipes and a metal frame. To the left, there is a white door with a small window. Further left, a doorway leads to another room with a wooden floor and a chandelier. The floor in the kitchen is made of light-colored square tiles.
