Dating back to approximately 1820, Triangle Cottage is a charming four bedroom detached home, offering rich period character features in the heart of the picturesque village of Letchmore Heath. Situated near a village green, duck pond, and local pub, this home offers idyllic village living.

The property is centred around an impressive kitchen, featuring an Aga and a breakfast area and opens seamlessly into a stunning oak framed orangery with doors leading to your private garden. Separately there is a generous sized lounge overlooking the garden. The ground floor is finished with a good sized Utility Room and a downstairs W.C.

The first floor features a generous principal bedroom with a beautiful ensuite shower room. A quirky split-level landing leads to three further double bedrooms, a family bathroom, and a perfectly positioned reading nook/TV snug.

Externally, the property boasts a private, south-facing garden with a large patio. It also includes a substantial driveway for several cars and a detached oak-framed garage, ideal for storage or flexible, alternative uses.

Letchmore Heath is a quaint hamlet which dates back to the 13th century boasting an abundance of charm and character. It also benefits from easy access to the M1, A41 and M25 and mainline Thameslink stations from nearby Radlett or Elstree connect to St Pancras in less than 30 minutes
