THE EXTERIOR

FRONT

A charming cut stone frontage, raised from the roadside and bordered by low lying granite wall, with raised beds and hydrangeas to the neighbouring boundary. Exterior courtesy light, small gate to front terrace, and a far-reaching outlook over the neighbouring properties of Bareppa.

INTEGRAL GARAGE

Incredibly useful, with doors to the side and rear, providing access onto the cut stone frontage or, alternatively, an inner door leading to the utility room. Raised shelving, strip lighting, electrical consumer unit. uPVC double glazed window to side elevation, floor mounted Worcester oil fired boiler providing domestic hot water and central heating. In front of the garage, off-road parking exists for one vehicle, with steps rising to the side entrance for the annexe. Two further staircases rise to the side garden and rear terrace. Remote-controlled roller door.

SIDE GARDEN

A most intriguing area of land, bordered by stone walling, providing the opportunity for landscaping, yet offering the most exceptional far-reaching views over all neighbouring properties and trees, to rolling fields beyond.

RAISED REAR TERRACE

Accessed via a pathway around the rear of the annexe living room or, alternatively, from the dining area, where steps rise to a raised terrace, bordered by timber fencing, stone walling and low lying returning wall. A paved terrace, measuring approximately 8'2" x 14'9" (2.50m x 4.50m), offers level outdoor space which, undoubtedly, would capture plentiful sunlight in a sheltered area.
