THE PROPERTY

Occupied by three generations of the same family, 'Watersmeet' is a detached, individual, non-estate property which occupies a privileged position in the centre of this highly sought-after village, whose excellent amenities are just a short level walk away, together with the village's primary school being within close proximity.

The main accommodation provides three/four bedrooms and three bath/shower rooms, which complement a central entrance hall, full depth, double aspect kitchen and breakfast room, utility room, adaptable separate dining room, and well proportioned living room which overlooks and opens directly onto the extremely sunny, private, sub-tropical gardens. Upstairs, there are three bedrooms, one of which is en-suite, and the ground floor annexe benefits from both internal as well as independent external access. The existing planning consent for this annexe is for use by a 'family member' although, in the future, some prospective purchasers may wish to incorporate the annexe into the main accommodation or seek consent for its use for holiday letting etc, subject to the necessary permission from Cornwall Council.

The front gardens provide an attractive frontage as well as off-road parking, with the rear gardens being a particular feature due to their privacy, sunny aspect and the attractive aspect they provide from all main rooms.

THE LOCATION

'Watersmeet' is situated literally next door to the village's doctors surgery, across the road from the picturesque thatched public house - The Red Lion - with other facilities including an electricians, craft workshops, convenience store, coffee shop, hairdressers, church and bowling club all within easy walking distance.

Just outside the village is the picturesque riverside hamlet at Durgan and the internationally renowned, sub-tropical gardens at Glendurgan and Trebah. The Ferry Boat Inn at Helford Passage is nearby, and many picturesque walks in the area include along the banks of the beautiful Helford River, out to Rosemullion Head and beyond, along the South West Coast Path, to the sandy beaches at Maenporth, Swanpool and Falmouth. It is little wonder why Mawman remains one of the most sought-after location anywhere along the south coast of Cornwall.
