THE PROPERTY

In our clients family's ownership since construction, and to be sold for the first time in over forty years. The availability of 'Navas Croft' provides an exceptionally rare opportunity to purchase a property with grounds in this, one of south Cornwall's most sought-after and exclusive creekside villages.

Away from passing traffic and with the grounds enjoying an extremely high degree of privacy and shelter, 'Navas Croft' was designed to provide the first floor living areas, as well as the gardens and grounds, with the picturesque, panoramic and ever-changing views over the village and tree-lined banks of Port Navas Creek to Budock Vean, the woodland of Calamansac, Pedn Billy headland, the sheltered sailing waters of the Helford River and unspoilt rolling countryside of The Lizard Peninsula beyond.

A shared driveway leads to a large parking area to the side of the house, in addition there is a large integral garage and workshop. Pergola-covered steps to the side lead to the main entrance at the rear of the property, where a stable door opens into a split level entrance lobby. The first floor accommodation includes a particularly spacious, triple aspect living room, kitchen and dining room which opens onto a south-facing balcony, family cloaks/shower room, and principal bedroom with en-suite and dressing area. Downstairs, in addition to the integral garage/workshop, there are three further bedrooms, a large utility room and two stores, all of which provide much scope for reformatting if required.

Broad slate terraces and patios lie adjacent to the accommodation and provide lovely outside sitting/dining areas, with magnificent views. Extensive sweeping lawns are interspersed with well stocked shrubberies and specimen trees, with light woodland leading to a former kitchen garden area and through to the gently sloping, south-facing grassland to the rear - ideal for those prospective purchasers with children/grandchildren, pets and wanting a degree of self-sufficiency. In all, these gardens and grounds extend to approaching 5.5 acres or thereabouts.

THE LOCATION

Port Navas is a small, exclusive creekside community, situated between the well served villages of Mawnan Smith and Constantine. A village quay hosts the annual village regatta and nearby is the lauded Port Navas Yacht Club and Restaurant. The village hall holds many events, creating a real village community. From the quay, access is provided onto the tree-lined sheltered waters of Anna Maria and Port Navas Creek, and onto the Helford River, with Helford Sailing Club on the opposite bank. Gweek Boatyard provides laying-up and repair facilities, moorings are available on application, and just beyond Budock Vean and Pedn Billy is Helford Passage, the Ferryboat Inn and the mouth of the river which opens onto Falmouth Bay.

The beautiful sub-tropical gardens at Trebah and Glendurgan are just a few minutes' drive away, as are the villages of Mawnan Smith and Constantine, both of which provide an excellent range of day-to-day amenities, including sports clubs, doctors surgeries, general stores, churches, junior schools and public houses.

The Budock Vean Hotel has an excellent nine hole golf course, as well as leisure amenities, swimming pool and tennis courts. The South West Coast Path crosses the Helford River at Helford Passage and leads around The Lizard Peninsula to the south, and around Falmouth Bay to Maenporth, Swanpool and Falmouth in the other direction. The port of Falmouth approximately eight miles distant and the cathedral city of Truro just fifteen miles away, 'Navas Croft' is an ideal location for not just the beauty of the Helford River Area, but also the nearby village and town amenities.

THE EXTERIOR

'Navas Croft' is accessed off a private driveway which leads, initially, to 'Frenchmans', then to 'Navas Croft' and onto 'Chynoweth'.

DRIVEWAY AND FORECOURT

Twin timber gateposts open from the approach driveway, over which 'Navas Croft' enjoys an unrestricted right of access. 'Navas Croft' owns the forecourt and side parking area providing sufficient space for numerous vehicles, with the tarmac driveway continuing the breadth of the front of the house to the up-and-over door for the integral garage. Exterior courtesy lighting, wisteria-clad balcony, side parking area with lawn.

To the east of the driveway, through a gated entrance, is a lane providing access to additional land which is under separate ownership.

GARDENS AND GROUNDS

From the driveway, slate steps with pergola open onto a broad slate-paved patio with granite retaining wall, exterior courtesy lighting, cold water tap, stable-type entrance door and side storage lockers for recycling and garden implements etc. Slate and granite steps rise to the extensive and beautifully stocked gardens, which contain a mass of flowering shrubs and specimen trees, including camellias, hydrangeas, magnolia, pittosporum, azaleas, acers and rhododendrons.

The upper side gardens continue to form a kitchen garden area, with aluminium-framed greenhouse and polytunnel, with access to the grassland behind.

To the east of the property, a further raised three tier, slate-paved patio is ideal for outside dining, with beautiful views along Port Navas Creek, wooded shoreline, the Helford River, Helford Village and unspoilt countryside beyond. Lawned terraces feature low stone retaining walls, with further granite steps.

GARDEN WOODLAND

Bordering the formal gardens, continuing to the north and eastern side of the house, is an area of garden woodland - a haven of tranquility, ideal for wildlife and roaming children/grandchildren and pets.

GRASSLAND

Situated to the northern side of 'Navas Croft's' gardens and light woodland, a substantial area of grassland with side hedging enjoys a gently sloping, southerly aspect from where, once again, views are enjoyed over miles of surrounding countryside.
