DESCRIPTION

A unique, spacious Chapel of character situated within the village of Waen, Aberwheeler benefiting impressive views of open countryside and beyond and being within close proximity to the Market Town of Denbigh which affords all amenities as well as ample activities for all the family. The interior remains intact with pews and pulpit still in place. There are many excellent examples of chapel conversions within North Wales, Y Waun Chapel offers someone the rare opportunity to acquire a challenging yet rewarding project subject to all necessary planning consents and approvals. The chapel house benefits a red brick under slated roof attached outbuildings providing general store, garage and outside toilet.

We highly recommended internal viewing to fully appreciate the character and floor area on offer.
