DESCRIPTION

A tremendous smallholding/lifestyle opportunity set down a long private track with approximately 8.1 acres (3.27 hectares) of land near the village of Pentrefoelas in a beautiful countryside location with far reaching views. The farmhouse is traditionally stone built with lovely character features making it unique in its own right offering sizeable living space. There is a courtyard with a range of traditional outbuildings to include former shippoon and stable offering scope for conversion (subject to planning). They could provide a great space for workshops/studios and general stores. Additionally, the property includes several modern agricultural outbuildings perfect for housing machinery/implements/livestock and general store. The land comprises 8.1 acres allocated into two conveniently sized paddocks which predominately surround the curtilage of the property. Prospective purchasers seeking a change of life and pace wishing to live amongst nature in one of the most scenic parts of the country, simply must come to see this superb property. Very rarely does the opportunity arise to purchase a smallholding of this scope and character.
