A beautifully proportioned five-bedroom family house, quietly positioned on this highly sought-after Chelsea street, offering exceptional entertaining space and a wonderfully large private garden.

The house is arranged over five floors and provides well-balanced accommodation throughout. The raised ground floor features an elegant double reception room with excellent ceiling heights, wooden flooring and a feature fireplace, opening directly onto the garden and creating a rare sense of light and openness.

Of particular note is the expansive east-facing garden, which is significantly larger than typically found in this part of Chelsea and seamlessly connects with both the reception space above and the superb open-plan kitchen and family room below. The lower ground floor has been thoughtfully designed to provide a generous dining area, informal seating and television space, making it an ideal layout for both family living and entertaining.

The principal bedroom suite occupies the first floor and benefits from excellent proportions, built-in storage and an en suite bathroom. Four further double bedrooms and two additional bathrooms are arranged over the upper floors, complemented by a study/home office and extensive storage throughout.

Rawlings Street is ideally located moments from Sloane Square and within easy reach of the King's Road, Pavilion Road and Sloane Street, offering an exceptional range of boutiques, restaurants and amenities. The area is also particularly well regarded for its proximity to a number of leading schools.
