24 Bywater Street

London, SW3 4XH

- Freehold
- Roof Terrace
- Large Eat in Kitchen
- Three Bedrooms
- Charming Address
- Patio Garden

A charming three bedroom freehold Town House on one of the most sought after roads in Chelsea. With three good sized double bedrooms split over four floors this is a great house for a family. Bywater street is a no through road and as a result, is an extremely quiet and quaint street just off the Kings Road.

Entering on the raised ground floor into the large reception room, there is a large eat in kitchen on the lower ground floor with a little patio garden and a large separate utility space. On the first floor, there is two good-sized double bedrooms and a family bathroom. Then continuing to the top floor there is the master bedroom, a bathroom with an over the bath shower and a west facing roof terrace.

Bywater Street is just off of the King's Road and only a short distance from Sloane Square Station in close proximity to designer shops, restaurants and boutiques.
