Plymouth

Plymouth, Britain's Ocean City, is one of Europe's most vibrant waterfront cities. Located in one of the most beautiful locations imaginable, Plymouth is sandwiched between the incredible South West coastline and the wild beauty of Dartmoor National Park. Plymouth is 37 miles south-west of Exeter and 190 miles west-southwest of London, between the mouths of the rivers Plym to the east and Tamar to the west where they join Plymouth Sound to form the boundary with Cornwall, it is also home to one of the most natural harbours in the world. To the North of Plymouth is Dartmoor National Park, extending to over 300 square miles, which provides excellent recreational facilities.

The city is home to more than 260,000 people, making it the 30th most populated city in the United Kingdom and the second-largest city in the Southwest, after Bristol and has a full range of shopping, educational and sporting facilities. There is mainline train service to London (Paddington) and to Penzance in West Cornwall.

There's everything that you would expect to find in a cool, cultural city, with great shopping, arts and entertainment. But there's also hundreds of years of history to uncover, from Sir Francis Drake and the Spanish Armada to the Mayflower sailing in 1620, to a city rebuilt following the Blitz during World War II. With easy access to Exeter and its International Airport and a mainline train station giving direct access to London and a ferry port offering sea crossings to both France and Spain.

Plymouth is governed locally by Plymouth City Council and is represented nationally by three MPs. Plymouth's economy remains strongly influenced by shipbuilding and seafaring including ferry links to Brittany and Spain, but has tended toward a university economy since the early 2000's. It has the largest operational naval base in Western Europe – HMNB Devonport.

Whitleigh

Whitleigh is a district area and is in the electoral ward of Budshead of the city of Plymouth. It shares district borders with Southway, Honicknowle, Crownhill, West Park and St Budeaux. Schools in the area are Whitleigh's primary schools, Woodfield Primary School, St. Peter's Roman Catholic School, Whitleigh Community Primary School, and Woodland Community Special School. Sir John Hunt Community Sports College (formerly Community College, and previously Whitleigh comprehensive (or High) school) previously merged with Southway Community College. Whitleigh Green is the predominant shopping precinct, which hosts a small supermarket (co-op), take away (fish & chip shop), cafe, hair/beauty salon, discount store (household & gardening), bakery, newsagents, post office and a pharmacy. Wheal Whitleigh was a silver and lead mine, located near the present-day Christian Mill Business Park. Workings extend westwards following the approximate line of Lancaster gardens. Whitleigh is a popular residential area and boasts easy access to the A38 dual carriageway. Regular bus routes operate through Whitleigh giving access into Plymouth City Centre and other areas across the city
