Plymouth

Plymouth, Britain's Ocean City, is one of Europe's most vibrant waterfront cities. Located in one of the most beautiful locations imaginable, Plymouth is sandwiched between the incredible South West coastline and the wild beauty of Dartmoor National Park. Plymouth is 37 miles south-west of Exeter and 190 miles west-south-west of London, between the mouths of the rivers Plym to the east and Tamar to the west where they join Plymouth Sound to form the boundary with Cornwall, it is also home to one of the most natural harbours in the world. To the North of Plymouth is Dartmoor National Park, extending to over 300 square miles, which provides excellent recreational facilities.

The city is home to more than 260,000 people, making it the 30th most populated city in the United Kingdom and the second-largest city in the South West, after Bristol and has a full range of shopping, educational and sporting facilities. There is mainline train service to London (Paddington) and to Penzance in West Cornwall.

There's everything that you would expect to find in a cool, cultural city, with great shopping, arts and entertainment. But there's also hundreds of years of history to uncover, from Sir Francis Drake and the Spanish Armada to the Mayflower sailing in 1620, to a city rebuilt following the Blitz during World War II. With easy access to Exeter and its International Airport and a mainline train station giving direct access to London and a ferry port offering sea crossings to both France and Spain.

Plymouth is governed locally by Plymouth City Council and is represented nationally by three MPs. Plymouth's economy remains strongly influenced by shipbuilding and seafaring including ferry links to Brittany and Spain, but has tended toward a university economy since the early 2000's. It has the largest operational naval base in Western Europe – HMNB Devonport.

Peverell

Peverell is an extremely well-regarded area and has come to be known locally as very desirable due to its abundance of period terraced family homes. Situated along Weston Park road and boasts an enviable position with views towards Plymouth sound. This highly desirable area is extremely close to Central Park. Its location allows the benefit of being just a short distance from many local amenities found in nearby Hyde Park and Mutley Plain. Regular bus services operate along Peverell Park Road giving access into Plymouth City Centre and other areas further afield. This property also benefits from being within the catchment area of Hyde Park Primary School which is very popular locally and currently boasts a good Ofsted Report.

More Property Information

Additionally, the home includes a useful utility room on the ground floor, which provides access to an expansive private rear garden, ideal for outdoor activities and family enjoyment. A garage at the rear of the property, along with a storage room, adds to the practicality and appeal of this lovely home.

With its huge potential and spacious layout, this property is perfect for families seeking a comfortable and inviting environment. Situated close to local amenities, shops, and schools, it offers both convenience and community. Importantly, there is no onward chain, making this an excellent opportunity for prospective buyers. Early viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate all that this wonderful home has to offer.
