Plymouth

Plymouth, Britain's Ocean City, is one of Europe's most vibrant waterfront cities. Located in one of the most beautiful locations imaginable, Plymouth is sandwiched between the incredible South West coastline and the wild beauty of Dartmoor National Park. Plymouth is 37 miles south-west of Exeter and 190 miles west-south-west of London, between the mouths of the rivers Plym to the east and Tamar to the west where they join Plymouth Sound to form the boundary with Cornwall, it is also home to one of the most natural harbours in the world. To the North of Plymouth is Dartmoor National Park, extending to over 300 square miles, which provides excellent recreational facilities.

The city is home to more than 260,000 people, making it the 30th most populated city in the United Kingdom and the second-largest city in the South West, after Bristol and has a full range of shopping, educational and sporting facilities. There is mainline train service to London (Paddington) and to Penzance in West Cornwall.

Plymouth is governed locally by Plymouth City Council and is represented nationally by three MPs. Plymouth's economy remains strongly influenced by shipbuilding and seafaring including ferry links to Brittany and Spain, but has tended toward a university economy since the early 2000's. It has the largest operational naval base in Western Europe – HMNB Devonport.

Derriford

The North of Plymouth has now become one of the most popular residential areas of the city due to the superb houses and grounds that were developed there throughout the 60's, 70's and 80's. Leaffield Drive is well placed for all local amenities and is approximately four miles north of Plymouth city centre. Derriford is an established residential area offering a variety of local services, amenities and restaurants lying within close proximity of Derriford Hospital, Derriford Business Park and The University of St Mark and St John. Boasting convenient access to major routes in all directions including the centre and north towards Dartmoor and Tavistock providing a variety of recreational activities.

More Property Information

The ground floor features a vast American-inspired open living space, complete with a fabulous fitted kitchen, stunning dining area, and a grand lounge with bi-fold doors out to the sun terrace and garden- perfect for entertaining guests, alfresco dining or simply unwinding after a long day. Additionally, the top floor presents the option for multi-generational living if you have a growing teen or an older relative in residence or, as it has been in the past, a work from home business. The two rear facing bedrooms enjoy Juliet balconies and there is fabulous enclosed seating balcony on the top floor accessed from the living room. This property has "in roof" fitted solar panels to ensure that energy bills are minimised, CAT 6 wiring throughout and ample storage space which add to the practicality of this home. There really are far too many fantastic details to this property to list. With B rated EPC, this property not only offers the highest spec of luxury but also qualifies for a green mortgage deal, making it an environmentally friendly choice. From top to bottom, this house exudes sophistication and elegance, making it a standout option in Plymouth's real estate landscape.
