Plymouth

Plymouth, Britain's Ocean City, is one of Europe's most vibrant waterfront cities. Located in one of the most beautiful locations imaginable, Plymouth is sandwiched between the incredible South West coastline and the wild beauty of Dartmoor National Park. Plymouth is 37 miles south-west of Exeter and 190 miles west-southwest of London, between the mouths of the rivers Plym to the east and Tamar to the west where they join Plymouth Sound to form the boundary with Cornwall, it is also home to one of the most natural harbours in the world. To the North of Plymouth is Dartmoor National Park, extending to over 300 square miles, which provides excellent recreational facilities.

The city is home to more than 260,000 people, making it the 30th most populated city in the United Kingdom and the second-largest city in the Southwest, after Bristol and has a full range of shopping, educational and sporting facilities. There is mainline train service to London (Paddington) and to Penzance in West Cornwall. There's everything that you would expect to find in a cool, cultural city, with great shopping, arts and entertainment. But there's also hundreds of years of history to uncover, from Sir Francis Drake and the Spanish Armada to the Mayflower sailing in 1620, to a city rebuilt following the Blitz during World War II. With easy access to Exeter and its International Airport and a mainline train station giving direct access to London and a ferry port offering sea crossings to both France and Spain.

Plymouth is governed locally by Plymouth City Council and is represented nationally by three MPs. Plymouth's economy remains strongly influenced by shipbuilding and seafaring including ferry links to Brittany and Spain, but has tended toward a university economy since the early 2000's. It has the largest operational naval base in Western Europe – HMNB Devonport.

Honicknowle

Honicknowle is an area found to the north-west of Plymouth City Centre and just north of the A38 dual carriageway, therefore providing a peaceful 'suburb' location which still provides easy access into Plymouth City Centre and other areas across the city and further beyond via the numerous bus routes which operate nearby and the A38 being just a 5 minute drive away. The property we are offering for sale is a nicely positioned peaceful street found just off Honicknowle Green where the majority of local shops can be found, with further amenities being just a short walk away in the Transit Way Commercial Centre including a Lidl and a Tesco supermarket. There is a local primary school known as Shakespeare Primary School and secondary school known as All saints Plymouth which both boast Good Ofsted Reports.

More Property Information

Outside, you will find a gorgeous private rear garden, complete with a charming summer house that is currently utilised as a bar, ideal for summer gatherings or quiet evenings. The property also benefits from a new resin driveway, offering parking for two vehicles, a valuable asset in this sought-after area.

Conveniently situated close to local amenities, shops, and schools, this home is perfect for first-time buyers seeking a peaceful yet accessible location. Early viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate all that this delightful property has to offer.
