Plymouth

Plymouth, Britain's Ocean City, is one of Europe's most vibrant waterfront cities. Located in one of the most beautiful locations imaginable, Plymouth is sandwiched between the incredible South West coastline and the wild beauty of Dartmoor National Park. Plymouth is 37 miles south-west of Exeter and 190 miles west-south-west of London, between the mouths of the rivers Plym to the east and Tamar to the west where they join Plymouth Sound to form the boundary with Cornwall, it is also home to one of the most natural harbours in the world. To the North of Plymouth is Dartmoor National Park, extending to over 300 square miles, which provides excellent recreational facilities.

The city is home to more than 260,000 people, making it the 30th most populated city in the United Kingdom and the second-largest city in the South West, after Bristol and has a full range of shopping, educational and sporting facilities. There is mainline train service to London (Paddington) and to Penzance in West Cornwall.

There's everything that you would expect to find in a cool, cultural city, with great shopping, arts and entertainment. But there's also hundreds of years of history to uncover, from Sir Francis Drake and the Spanish Armada to the Mayflower sailing in 1620, to a city rebuilt following the Blitz during World War II. With easy access to Exeter and its International Airport and a mainline train station giving direct access to London and a ferry port offering sea crossings to both France and Spain.

Plymouth is governed locally by Plymouth City Council and is represented nationally by three MPs. Plymouth's economy remains strongly influenced by shipbuilding and seafaring including ferry links to Brittany and Spain, but has tended toward a university economy since the early 2000's. It has the largest operational naval base in Western Europe – HMNB Devonport.

Mutley

The property benefits from being within close proximity to a wealth of local amenities found along nearby Mutley Plain or Hyde Park. Plymouth City Centre and Plymouth University can also be found nearby thanks to the property's central location and local bus routes operate along Alexandra Road giving access into the City Centre and other locations across the city. A number of popular local primary and secondary schools are also just a short distance away.

More Property Information

The property also benefits from a good-sized private rear garden, ideal for outdoor relaxation, along with a utility room for added convenience and a garage at the rear for secure parking or additional storage. Situated close to local schools, the vibrant Mutley Plain, and the picturesque Central Park, this home offers a perfect blend of comfort and convenience. Gas central heating and UPVC double glazing throughout. Early viewing is strongly advised to fully appreciate all that this delightful property has to offer.
