Plymouth

Plymouth, Britain's Ocean City, is one of Europe's most vibrant waterfront cities. Located in one of the most beautiful locations imaginable, Plymouth is sandwiched between the incredible South West coastline and the wild beauty of Dartmoor National Park. Plymouth is 37 miles south-west of Exeter and 190 miles west-south-west of London, between the mouths of the rivers Plym to the east and Tamar to the west where they join Plymouth Sound to form the boundary with Cornwall, it is also home to one of the most natural harbours in the world. To the North of Plymouth is Dartmoor National Park, extending to over 300 square miles, which provides excellent recreational facilities.

The city is home to more than 260,000 people, making it the 30th most populated city in the United Kingdom and the second-largest city in the South West, after Bristol and has a full range of shopping, educational and sporting facilities. There is mainline train service to London (Paddington) and to Penzance in West Cornwall.

There's everything that you would expect to find in a cool, cultural city, with great shopping, arts and entertainment. But there's also hundreds of years of history to uncover, from Sir Francis Drake and the Spanish Armada to the Mayflower sailing in 1620, to a city rebuilt following the Blitz during World War II. With easy access to Exeter and its International Airport and a mainline train station giving direct access to London and a ferry port offering sea crossings to both France and Spain.

Plymouth is governed locally by Plymouth City Council and is represented nationally by three MPs. Plymouth's economy remains strongly influenced by shipbuilding and seafaring including ferry links to Brittany and Spain, but has tended toward a university economy since the early 2000's. It has the largest operational naval base in Western Europe – HMNB Devonport.

Stoke

The property is situated literally just a stone's throw away from the ever popular Stoke Village where a number of local amenities can be found. Stoke is well known for having an abundance of Victorian, Georgian and Edwardian properties within a conservation area. The area boasts easy access into Plymouth City Centre, which is only a short drive away and many local bus services run through the area giving access to all areas across Plymouth. Some of the amenities provided includes a co-operative store, pharmacy, cafe's, charity shops, public houses and much more. Primary schools in the area include Stoke Damerel Primary School and Stuart Road Primary School, whilst secondary schooling within the area includes Devonport High School for Boys and Stoke Damerel Community College. Plymouth College of Further Education is located on the southern fringes of the area, which is yet another added benefit along with being within close proximity to Devonport Dockyard and the Torpoint Ferry giving access in Cornwall. Located approximately 1 mile from Plymouth centre means that residents of stoke have easy access to Plymouth ferry port and within 3 miles of the A38. Plymouth Albion Rugby Football Club is located within a mile to the south west of Stoke with Plymouth Argyle Football Club located within a mile to the north east. There are a number of large recreational areas including the Block House Park, Victoria Park at Mill Bridge and Devonport Park within the area as well as the Ecological Park located south of Milehouse Road.

More Property Information

The property features three generously sized double bedrooms, each filled with natural light, ensuring a restful retreat for all family members. The bathroom is impressively large, complete with a separate shower and a stunning bath, providing a perfect space to unwind after a long day.

Outside, the gorgeous enclosed paved courtyard garden offers a private outdoor space, ideal for enjoying the fresh air or hosting summer barbecues. Additionally, there is a great-sized garage at the rear of the property, providing convenient parking for one vehicle and extra storage options.

Situated close to a variety of local amenities and schools, this home is perfectly positioned for families looking for convenience and community. With its blend of Victorian charm and modern comforts, this lovely property on St. Levan Road is not to be missed. We invite you to come and experience all that this wonderful home has to offer.
