Plymouth

Plymouth, Britain's Ocean City, is one of Europe's most vibrant waterfront cities. Located in one of the most beautiful locations imaginable, Plymouth is sandwiched between the incredible South West coastline and the wild beauty of Dartmoor National Park. Plymouth is 37 miles south-west of Exeter and 190 miles west-southwest of London, between the mouths of the rivers Plym to the east and Tamar to the west where they join Plymouth Sound to form the boundary with Cornwall, it is also home to one of the most natural harbours in the world. To the North of Plymouth is Dartmoor National Park, extending to over 300 square miles, which provides excellent recreational facilities.

The city is home to more than 260,000 people, making it the 30th most populated city in the United Kingdom and the second-largest city in the Southwest, after Bristol and has a full range of shopping, educational and sporting facilities. There is mainline train service to London (Paddington) and to Penzance in West Cornwall.

There's everything that you would expect to find in a cool, cultural city, with great shopping, arts and entertainment. But there's also hundreds of years of history to uncover, from Sir Francis Drake and the Spanish Armada to the Mayflower sailing in 1620, to a city rebuilt following the Blitz during World War II. With easy access to Exeter and its International Airport and a mainline train station giving direct access to London and a ferry port offering sea crossings to both France and Spain.

Plymouth is governed locally by Plymouth City Council and is represented nationally by three MPs. Plymouth's economy remains strongly influenced by shipbuilding and seafaring including ferry links to Brittany and Spain, but has tended toward a university economy since the early 2000's. It has the largest operational naval base in Western Europe – HMNB Devonport.

Lipson

Situated in Lipson which boasts a convenient central location within close proximity to a wealth of local amenities found in nearby Mutley Plain and slightly further away in the City Centre. Regular local bus services run nearby along Old Laira Road/Alexandra Road giving access into the City Centre and other areas across the city. Lipson Co-operative Academy and Lipson Vale Primary School are both located nearby and both have Good Ofsted Reports.

More Property Information

The property boasts three generous bedrooms, providing ample space for family members or guests. The well-appointed bathroom ensures convenience for all, while the large rear garden offers a wonderful outdoor retreat, perfect for children to play or for hosting summer barbecues. Additionally, there is a front garden that adds to the property's curb appeal.

For those with vehicles, parking is available for one car, and there is also a garage located in a block nearby, providing extra storage or parking options.

This home is truly a gem in a sought-after location, and early viewing is highly advised to fully appreciate all it has to offer. Don't miss the opportunity to make this beautiful property your new family home.
