Plymouth

The waterfront city of Plymouth is set in one of the finest locations in the country, it stands right on the border between Devon and Cornwall overlooking the spectacular waters of Plymouth Sound to the south, while the remote beauty of Dartmoor National Park nudges its margins to the north. Both Devon and Cornwall have long been cherished as holiday destinations with fabulous beaches, stunning unspoilt countryside, historic town and many more famous attractions such as the Eden Project. Plymouth city centre has a pedestrianised shopping centre with its newly opened undercover shopping centre. It has a large modern multi-screen cinema complex and the well known Theatre Royal which regularly plays host to The Birmingham Royal Ballet in addition to the musicals, plays, comedies and operas that are staged throughout the year. In contrast, The Barbican offers a more cosmopolitan atmosphere being Plymouth city's oldest quarter. The area overlooks a pretty harbour and includes a variety of small independent shops, a number of wine bars, restaurants and cafes with open air seating. Plymouth is easily accessed via the M5 motorway which joins the A38 at Junction 31. The city can also be reached via rail, via the National Express coach network and via airport located in Exeter (49 miles away).

Stoke

Stoke is a sought after residential district, much of which is a conservation area due to the high density of Regency and Victorian homes in the area. Located approx. 1 mile from Plymouth centre offering easy access to Plymouth ferry port and within 3 miles of the A38. Primary schools in the area include Stoke Damerel and Stuart Road Primary School, whilst secondary schooling within the area includes Devonport High School for Boys and Stoke Damerel Community College. City College Plymouth is located on the southern fringes of the area. There are a number of large recreational areas including Mount Pleasant Recreation Ground, Victoria Park at Mill Bridge and Devonport Park within the area as well as the Ecological Park located off Milehouse Road.

More Property Information

One of the standout features of this property is the fantastic sunny roof terrace, which offers a delightful space for outdoor relaxation and entertaining. Additionally, the private rear courtyard garden provides a peaceful retreat, ideal for enjoying the fresh air in a tranquil setting.
