Cross Keys Estates

As one of Plymouth's leading QUALIFIED estate agents for over two decades, we are proud to have been offering our multi award winning customer service since day one. If you are currently on the market or you are thinking of putting your property on the market, why not give us a call, you will not be disappointed.

Plymouth

The waterfront city of Plymouth is set in one of the finest locations in the country, it stands right on the border between Devon and Cornwall overlooking the spectacular waters of Plymouth Sound to the south, while the remote beauty of Dartmoor National Park nudges its margins to the north. Both Devon and Cornwall have long been cherished as holiday destinations with fabulous beaches, stunning unspoilt countryside, historic town and many more famous attractions such as the Eden Project. Plymouth city centre has a pedestrianised shopping centre with its newly opened undercover shopping centre. It has a large modern multi-screen cinema complex and the well-known Theatre Royal which regularly plays host to The Birmingham Royal Ballet in addition to the musicals, plays, comedies and operas that are staged throughout the year. In contrast, The Barbican offers a more cosmopolitan atmosphere being Plymouth city's oldest quarter. The area overlooks a pretty harbour and includes a variety of small independent shops, a number of wine bars, restaurants and cafes with open air seating. Plymouth is easily accessed via the M5 motorway which joins the A38 at Junction 31. The city can also be reached via rail, via the National Express coach network and via airports located in Exeter (49 miles away) and Plymouth airport (5 miles from the city centre). This house Occupying an ideal central location between Central Park, Mutley Plain, City Centre and University, less than half a mile distant.

Ivybridge

Ivybridge is a small town found roughly 10 miles east of the city of Plymouth along the A38 Dual Carriageway and is extremely popular with those who want to live with a semi-rural feel yet still have local amenities nearby and easy access into Plymouth City Centre which is about 20 minutes away and the rest of the UK with the M5 Motorway being roughly 30 minutes' drive. Ivybridge itself boasts its own central shopping area in which numerous local amenities can be found including shops, banks, cafe's, restaurants and much more, and the town is likely most popular for its secondary school, Ivybridge Community College, which is attracts many families into the area as the school currently boasts an Outstanding Ofsted Report. Ivybridge has a magnificent natural setting along the River Erme and boasts centuries of history both as a mill town and as a staging post on the route from London. Known as 'The Gateway to the Moors', the town borders Dartmoor National Park, a vast moorland which spans across Devon defined by forests, rivers, wetlands and tors.
