Plymouth

The waterfront city of Plymouth is set in one of the finest locations in the country, it stands right on the border between Devon and Cornwall overlooking the spectacular waters of Plymouth Sound to the south, while the remote beauty of Dartmoor National Park nudges its margins to the north. Both Devon and Cornwall have long been cherished as holiday destinations with fabulous beaches, stunning unspoilt countryside, historic town and many more famous attractions such as the Eden Project. Plymouth city centre has a pedestrianised shopping centre with its newly opened undercover shopping centre. It has a large modern multi-screen cinema complex and the well known Theatre Royal which regularly plays host to The Birmingham Royal Ballet in addition to the musicals, plays, comedies and operas that are staged throughout the year. In contrast, The Barbican offers a more cosmopolitan atmosphere being Plymouth city's oldest quarter. The area overlooks a pretty harbour and includes a variety of small independent shops, a number of wine bars, restaurants and cafes with open air seating. Plymouth is easily accessed via the M5 motorway which joins the A38 at Junction 31.

Holly Park

A lesser known area of Plymouth, Holly Park is a very popular area which is tucked away on the border of Tamerton Foliot and lies on the edge of Tamerton Lake. This superb location provides peace and tranquility, with this property specifically being surrounded by the local woodland in which there are numerous walks and trails fantastic for those who enjoy being out in nature and dog-walkers alike. The area is well served by local amenities, with the closest stores being just a short drive away in Tamerton Foliot, Crownhill or Transit Way, and there are regular bus routes which operate within the area providing access to Plymouth City Centre and a number of other locations across the city. There are also popular primary and secondary schools not too far from the area which are all quite well regarded locally and boast good ofsted reports.

More Property Information

Externally, the property is equally impressive, featuring a well-maintained front garden and a large driveway that accommodates up to three vehicles. A single garage offers additional storage or parking options. The rear garden is a true highlight, showcasing beautiful green views over the surrounding landscape, providing a serene outdoor space for relaxation and play.

Situated in close proximity to excellent transport links, reputable schools, and local amenities, this property is perfectly positioned for family living. Available unfurnished for £1,495.00 per calendar month, it can be secured with a holding deposit of £345.00 and a full deposit of £1,725.00. Please note that this property is not available for sharers. This delightful home is ready to welcome its new tenants, offering a blend of comfort, style, and convenience in a sought-after location.
