As one of Plymouth's leading QUALIFIED estate agents for over two decades, we are proud to have been offering our multi award winning customer service since day one. If you are currently on the market or you are thinking of putting your property on the market, why not give us a call, you will not be disappointed.

Plymouth

Plymouth, Britain's Ocean City, is one of Europe's most vibrant waterfront cities. Located in one of the most beautiful locations imaginable, Plymouth is sandwiched between the incredible South West coastline and the wild beauty of Dartmoor National Park. Plymouth is 37 miles south-west of Exeter and 190 miles west-south-west of London, between the mouths of the rivers Plym to the east and Tamar to the west where they join Plymouth Sound to form the boundary with Cornwall, it is also home to one of the most natural harbours in the world. To the North of Plymouth is Dartmoor National Park, extending to over 300 square miles, which provides excellent recreational facilities.

The city is home to more than 260,000 people, making it the 30th most populated city in the United Kingdom and the second-largest city in the South West, after Bristol and has a full range of shopping, educational and sporting facilities. There is mainline train service to London (Paddington) and to Penzance in West Cornwall.

There's everything that you would expect to find in a cool, cultural city, with great shopping, arts and entertainment. But there's also hundreds of years of history to uncover, from Sir Francis Drake and the Spanish Armada to the Mayflower sailing in 1620, to a city rebuilt following the Blitz during World War II. With easy access to Exeter and its International Airport and a mainline train station giving direct access to London and a ferry port offering sea crossings to both France and Spain.

Plymouth is governed locally by Plymouth City Council and is represented nationally by three MPs. Plymouth's economy remains strongly influenced by shipbuilding and seafaring including ferry links to Brittany and Spain, but has tended toward a university economy since the early 2000's. It has the largest operational naval base in Western Europe – HMNB Devonport.

Stoke

The property is situated just a stone's throw away from the ever popular Stoke Village where a number of local amenities can be found. Stoke is well known for having an abundance of Victorian, Georgian and Edwardian properties within a conservation area. The area boasts easy access into Plymouth City Centre, which is only a short drive away and many local bus services run through the area giving access to all areas across Plymouth. Some of the amenities provided includes a co-operative store, pharmacy, cafe's, charity shops, public houses and much more. Devonport High School for Boys & Plymouth City College can be found here in Stoke which is yet another added benefit along with being within close proximity to Devonport Dockyard and the Torpoint Ferry giving access in Cornwall.

More Property Information

The apartment boasts two beautifully appointed double bedrooms, each designed to maximise light and comfort. Accompanying these bedrooms are two contemporary shower rooms, ensuring that both residents and guests enjoy a touch of luxury. The property is thoughtfully laid out over two floors, with convenient under-stairs storage to keep your living space tidy and organised.

For added convenience, this apartment includes one allocated underground parking space, a rare find in such a desirable location and lift access. Early viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate the charm and elegance of this remarkable property. Whether you are looking to buy or rent, this duplex apartment in Latitude 52 is an opportunity not to be missed.
