Plymouth

Plymouth is a city on the south coast of Devon, about 37 miles south-west of Exeter and 190 miles west-south-west of London, between the mouths of the rivers Plym to the east and Tamar to the west where they join Plymouth Sound to form the boundary with Cornwall, it is also adjacent to one of the most natural harbours in the world. To the North is the Dartmoor National Park extending to over 300 square miles and which provides excellent recreational facilities. The city is home to more than 260,000 people, making it the 30th most populated city in the United Kingdom and the second-largest city in the South West, after Bristol and has a full range of shopping, educational and sporting facilities. There is mainline train service to London (Paddington) and to Penzance in West Cornwall. Plymouth is governed locally by Plymouth City Council and is represented nationally by three MPs. Plymouth's economy remains strongly influenced by shipbuilding and seafaring including ferry links to Brittany and Spain, but has tended toward a university economy since the early 2000's. It has the largest operational naval base in Western Europe – HMNB Devonport.

Stoke

Stoke is a sought after residential district, much of which is a conservation area due to the high density of Regency and Victorian homes in the area. Located approx. 1 mile from Plymouth centre offering easy access to Plymouth ferry port and within 3 miles of the A38. Primary schools in the area include Stoke Damerel and Stuart Road Primary School, whilst secondary schooling within the area includes Devonport High School for Boys and Stoke Damerel Community College. City College Plymouth is located on the southern fringes of the area. There are a number of large recreational areas including Mount Pleasant Recreation Ground, Victoria Park at Mill Bridge and Devonport Park within the area as well as the Ecological Park located off Milehouse Road.
