Plymouth

The waterfront city of Plymouth is set in one of the finest locations in the country, it stands right on the border between Devon and Cornwall overlooking the spectacular waters of Plymouth Sound to the south, while the remote beauty of Dartmoor National Park nudges its margins to the north.

Both Devon and Cornwall have long been cherished as holiday destinations with fabulous beaches, stunning unspoilt countryside, historic town and many more famous attractions such as the Eden Project.

Plymouth city centre has a pedestrianised shopping centre with its newly opened undercover shopping centre. It has a large modern multi-screen cinema complex and the well-known Theatre Royal which regularly plays host to The Birmingham Royal Ballet in addition to the musicals, plays, comedies and operas that are staged throughout the year.

In contrast, The Barbican offers a more cosmopolitan atmosphere being Plymouth city's oldest quarter. The area overlooks a pretty harbour and includes a variety of small independent shops, a number of wine bars, restaurants and cafes with open air seating.

Plymouth is easily accessed via the M5 motorway which joins the A38 at Junction 31. The city can also be reached via rail, via the National Express coach network and via airports located in Exeter (49 miles away).

Stoke

Stoke is not far to the refurbished Royal William Yard for the River Cottage Canteen, or to the Barbican for Prete's ice-cream parlor or the Plymouth Arts Centre. Stoke Damerel conservation area has beautiful, affordable white stucco villas around Wingfield Road, The Elms, Collingwood Road and the like; the wider area also sports lovely, early-Victorian cottages interspersed with keenly priced terraces, such as Millbridge around Wilton Street, first built to house dockers. Generally smaller and more affordable homes towards Devonport dockyard. Stoke is right by the new Plymouth Life Centre, which has the largest aquatic facilities of its kind in southern England (outside of the Olympic Village) and is home to the newest wheelchair rugby team in the UK, the West Country Hawks."
