Plymouth

The waterfront city of Plymouth is set in one of the finest locations in the country, it stands right on the border between Devon and Cornwall overlooking the spectacular waters of Plymouth Sound to the south, while the remote beauty of Dartmoor National Park nudges its margins to the north.

Both Devon and Cornwall have long been cherished as holiday destinations with fabulous beaches, stunning unspoilt countryside, historic town and many more famous attractions such as the Eden Project.

Plymouth city centre has a pedestrianised shopping centre with its newly opened undercover shopping centre. It has a large modern multi-screen cinema complex and the well-known Theatre Royal which regularly plays host to The Birmingham Royal Ballet in addition to the musicals, plays, comedies and operas that are staged throughout the year.

In contrast, The Barbican offers a more cosmopolitan atmosphere being Plymouth city's oldest quarter. The area overlooks a pretty harbour and includes a variety of small independent shops, a number of wine bars, restaurants and cafes with open air seating.

Plymouth is easily accessed via the M5 motorway which joins the A38 at Junction 31. The city can also be reached via rail, via the National Express coach network and via airports located in Exeter (49 miles away).

City Centre

Plymouth City Centre has undergone much redevelopment in recent times and seen the addition of Drake's Circus Shopping Mall with over 60 retail outlets and eateries, a magnet for any shop-a-holics amongst you and can easily meet any retail needs you might have. The new coach station is now right in the heart of the shopping district and offers really easy access to all parts of the South West along with the railway station only a short walk away. A brand-new shopping, eating and leisure complex has been announced for the old coach depot and will certainly add to the vibrant feel of the city which is rapidly becoming a real destination location for people relocating to the area and tourists alike. Plymouth City Centre is thriving vibrant place with many new additions to the street scene including the Bar Code Building and Box Museum building. Plymouth has a great cafe culture and evening social life with plenty of bars and clubs and restaurants to take pick from. Plymouth is known also known as Britain's Ocean City and has much to offer including other nearby attractions such as The Barbican, with its mix of bars, galleries and restaurants, The Royal William Yard has also much to offer with a monthly outdoor cinema, cafe culture and soon to boast a new high-end hotel. Plymouth City Centre is definitely the place to be if you love the urban feel of a growing, fun city close to the sea.
