Plymouth

Plymouth, Britain's Ocean City, is one of Europe's most vibrant waterfront cities. Located in one of the most beautiful locations imaginable, Plymouth is sandwiched between the incredible South West coastline and the wild beauty of Dartmoor National Park. Plymouth is 37 miles south-west of Exeter and 190 miles west-south-west of London, between the mouths of the rivers Plym to the east and Tamar to the west where they join Plymouth Sound to form the boundary with Cornwall, it is also home to one of the most natural harbours in the world. To the North of Plymouth is Dartmoor National Park, extending to over 300 square miles, which provides excellent recreational facilities.

The city is home to more than 260,000 people, making it the 30th most populated city in the United Kingdom and the second-largest city in the South West, after Bristol and has a full range of shopping, educational and sporting facilities. There is mainline train service to London (Paddington) and to Penzance in West Cornwall. There's everything that you would expect to find in a cool, cultural city, with great shopping, arts and entertainment. But there's also hundreds of years of history to uncover, from Sir Francis Drake and the Spanish Armada to the Mayflower sailing in 1620, to a city rebuilt following the Blitz during World War II. With easy access to Exeter and its International Airport and a mainline train station giving direct access to London and a ferry port offering sea crossings to both France and Spain.

Plymouth is governed locally by Plymouth City Council and is represented nationally by three MPs. Plymouth's economy remains strongly influenced by shipbuilding and seafaring including ferry links to Brittany and Spain, but has tended toward a university economy since the early 2000's. It has the largest operational naval base in Western Europe – HMNB Devonport.

Stoke

This property is located within the popular and well sought after Conservation Area of Stoke Damerell. Here you will find an excellent range of local facilities including good schools (Stoke Damerell Primary School, Plymouth College Junior School, Devonport High School for Boys), parkland, nearby Stoke Village which has a wide variety of high quality local independent shops and services. There is a regular public transport to the City Centre via either bus or train (Devonport Train Station located just off Portland Road). Plymouth has something for everyone, whether it is enjoying the Barbican with its fantastic restaurants and bars, or taking a pleasant walk along the South West Coastal Path. There is the Tamar Valley with its superb river creeks and estuaries, Dartmoor, one of the world's finest national parks and of course, the ancient county of Cornwall are all waiting to be explored.
