Plymouth

Plymouth, Britain's Ocean City, is one of Europe's most vibrant waterfront cities. Located in one of the most beautiful locations imaginable, Plymouth is sandwiched between the incredible South West coastline and the wild beauty of Dartmoor National Park. Plymouth is 37 miles south-west of Exeter and 190 miles west-south-west of London, between the mouths of the rivers Plym to the east and Tamar to the west where they join Plymouth Sound to form the boundary with Cornwall, it is also home to one of the most natural harbours in the world. To the North of Plymouth is Dartmoor National Park, extending to over 300 square miles, which provides excellent recreational facilities.

The city is home to more than 260,000 people, making it the 30th most populated city in the United Kingdom and the second-largest city in the South West, after Bristol and has a full range of shopping, educational and sporting facilities. There is mainline train service to London (Paddington) and to Penzance in West Cornwall.

There's everything that you would expect to find in a cool, cultural city, with great shopping, arts and entertainment. But there's also hundreds of years of history to uncover, from Sir Francis Drake and the Spanish Armada to the Mayflower sailing in 1620, to a city rebuilt following the Blitz during World War II. With easy access to Exeter and its International Airport and a mainline train station giving direct access to London and a ferry port offering sea crossings to both France and Spain.

Plymouth is governed locally by Plymouth City Council and is represented nationally by three MPs. Plymouth's economy remains strongly influenced by shipbuilding and seafaring including ferry links to Brittany and Spain, but has tended toward a university economy since the early 2000's. It has the largest operational naval base in Western Europe – HMNB Devonport.

Stonehouse

Stonehouse Peninsula is an extremely prestigious and sought-after area within Plymouth due to its waterside location and being within close proximity to the ever-popular Royal William Yard development; this fantastic location affords the property beautiful panoramic views across the River Tamar Estuary and towards Cornwall in the distance. Stonehouse as an area has recently undergone a large-scale regeneration and offers its own local amenities including convenience stores, restaurants and public houses and is within walking distance of Plymouth City Centre where many further amenities can be found. The area is well known for its many coastal walks and points of interest including The Royal William Yard, Devil's Point and the Cremyll Ferry to Mount Edgcumbe being just a stone's throw away from the property itself. Regular bus services operate along Durnford Street and Cremyll Street giving access into Plymouth City Centre and other areas across the city and there are a number of excellent primary and secondary schools within close proximity to the property.
