Beacon Park

This is a great opportunity to acquire a lovely 3 bed semi detached 1930's house situated within a desirable location close to supermarkets, Plymouth Life Centre which has a fantastic array of leisure facilities, Central Park, Park and Ride, and bus routes providing easy access to the vibrant City Centre and historic water's edge. Beacon Park is renowned for having great family properties normally 1930's semi detached and latterly 1950's properties. The area is service by one of the top rated primary schools in Plymouth, Mont Pelier School. Devonport High School for Girls is also situated just on the boundary separating Beacon Park and Milehouse. Properties in this area generally have high demand from the family market as there are a lot of Cul-De-Sac's no through roads, making it generally a lot safer for children to play with the passing traffic.

Plymouth

Plymouth is a city on the south coast of Devon, about 37 miles south-west of Exeter and 190 miles west-south-west of London, between the mouths of the rivers Plym to the east and Tamar to the west where they join Plymouth Sound to form the boundary with Cornwall, it is also adjacent to one of the most natural harbours in the world. To the North is the Dartmoor National Park extending to over 300 square miles and which provides excellent recreational facilities. The city is home to more than 260,000 people, making it the 30th most populated city in the United Kingdom and the second-largest city in the South West, after Bristol and has a full range of shopping, educational and sporting facilities. There is mainline train service to London (Paddington) and to Penzance in West Cornwall. Plymouth is governed locally by Plymouth City Council and is represented nationally by three MPs. Plymouth's economy remains strongly influenced by shipbuilding and seafaring including ferry links to Brittany and Spain, but has tended toward a university / student economy since the early 2000's. It has the largest operational naval base in Western Europe – HMNB Devonport.
