A stylish and modern two bedroom apartment with secure parking, and convenient for the transport and amenities of Chelsea Creek.

Set on the third floor, this well-proportioned two double bedroom apartment in Counter House offers over 800 sq ft (74 sq m) of living space, complemented by a private balcony and secure parking. The accommodation comprises an open-plan reception room and kitchen, creating an excellent space for everyday living and entertaining, with direct access onto the private balcony. The modern fitted kitchen provides excellent storage and workspace. The principal bedroom benefits from having a modern en-suite shower room, excellent built-in wardrobes, and views across the rear gardens. There is a further double bedroom with built-in wardrobes, a separate family bathroom, and a spacious entrance hallway with further useful storage. This apartment also has the added benefit of having access to a gated/secure parking space.

Located within the highly sought-after Chelsea Creek development, residents benefit from beautifully landscaped communal gardens, meandering waterways, and a tranquil dockside atmosphere. The development also offers an impressive range of resident facilities, including 24-hour concierge, The Spa with indoor swimming pool, gymnasium, sauna, steam room, and treatment facilities. The location is particularly attractive, with Chelsea Harbour and Imperial Wharf just moments away, offering a selection of cafés, restaurants, bars, and everyday amenities. The world-renowned King’s Road is also within easy walking distance, providing an extensive choice of restaurants, bars, and shopping. Imperial Wharf Station provides London Overground connections, with Clapham Junction, West Brompton, and the Gatwick Express service all readily accessible. Chelsea Harbour Pier also provides access to river services along the Thames, while the development is well-connected by local bus routes.
