Property Description

A charming, well-presented Edwardian family home located in the highly sought-after Bedford Park area of Chiswick. Considerably improved by current owners to include a master suite in the loft and a spacious kitchen extension with underfloor heating to provide modern open-plan living and space for entertaining. Elegant period features throughout, including refurbished sash windows fitted with double-glazing and restored, original fireplaces fitted with gas fires. Bi-folding doors open out onto a generous south-facing garden with two patio areas.

Speldhurst Road is a quiet, tree-lined residential road close to two local parks and within easy-walking distance of the shops, restaurants and cafés on Chiswick High Road. Turnham Green tube station is a 12 minute walk away, and the nearby E3 bus route serves both this and Chiswick Mainline Station. This property is well-served by a wealth of excellent local schools, and sits comfortably in the catchment area for Southfield Primary School (Ofsted Outstanding).

This house offers a rare blend of timeless period charm and contemporary family living in a highly-desirable, well-connected and prestigious location in West London.
